

HIGHLAND.

September 14, 1908.

Mrs. E. Gaskill, of near Martinsville, was the guest of Homer Jones and family and other friends here Thursday and Friday.

Rev. D. S. Ferguson, of Troy, O., was visiting old friends here a part of last week.

Mrs. Walter Hoskins and son, Kenneth, after a couple of week's visit with relatives in Dayton and Troy, returned home Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Adda Bacon and Mrs. C. E. Slaughter, of Leesburg, were guests of Mrs. E. F. Terry, on Thursday last.

Rev. Charles Moore, who has been in Minnesota for some months past, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Salina Moore, and family, Saturday and Sunday, on his way to attend the Ohio Conference at Lancaster.

Mrs. Edward Ballentine, of Dayton, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hoskins.

The Friends' Church, which has been undergoing repairs for some weeks past, was ready for the usual service on Sunday. Rev. Levi Mills, of Wilmington, preached an excellent sermon, special music had been prepared for the occasion. Mrs. Emma Hockett, of Westboro, sang a solo in her usual impressive manner, and also again at Christian Endeavor in the evening.

The death of J. S. Cadmy occurred at his home at 7:30 a. m. Saturday. He had been a sufferer from paralysis for some months past, which caused him to be entirely helpless much of the time.

Mrs. Emma Hockett, of Westboro, was the guest of Mrs. K. H. Terrell Saturday night and Sunday.

Homer Jones moved his family on Monday to Columbus, where they have rented property and expect to make their future home. He will continue his business here for a time.

Mrs. Sarah Woodmansee has been very ill the past week at the home of her son, C. A. Woodmansee, on Railroad street, but at this writing is apparently much better.

G. B. Russell and wife, of Erie, Pa., were called here by the latter's stepfather, J. S. Cadmy, arriving Sunday.

W. B. Livezey and wife, of New Vienna, were guests of Mrs. S. J. Robbins on Sunday.

Blain Earl, wife and little daughter started Monday morning for Ft. Worth, Texas, where they may possibly make their future home.

G. R. Pensyl and wife were called to Millersburg Friday of last week by the illness of their little grandson.

Misses Louise and Adina Head and Edna Adams, Wm. Head, Glenn and Archie Woodmansee and Robert Judkins were entertained on Sunday by Miss Alice Horsman and brother, Charles.

Irvin Orebaugh, of Cincinnati, is the guest of his brother, Dr. Geo. Orebaugh.

Misses Louise Head, Nellie and Edith Thornburg left Monday to enter college for the coming year at Wilmington.

Mrs. Georgia Tice, of Hollowtown, was visiting her parents, R. O. Wood and wife, part of last week.

Miss Daisy Wright, of Wilmington, was the guest of Miss Francis Green last week.

Wilbur Thornburg started Monday for Akron and Warren, where he will spend a few days.

James Adams bought out the elevator coal and lumber yards at Highland Station last week.

Mrs. Jennie Woollard is visiting her daughter in Dayton this week.

The members of the M. E. Church and people in general are pleased with the return of Rev. L. A. Washburn to Highland circuit.

Chas. Cadmy was here at the bedside of his father the greater part of last week.

WILLETTSVILLE.

September 14, 1908.

Rev. Gray delivered his first sermon at Dunn's Chapel Sunday, August 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyke, of Mt. Orab, were guests of Ben B. Vance and wife Saturday and Sunday.

Irvin Kinzer, of New Vienna, is visiting his parents at this place.

Don't forget the Hillsboro fair Thursday and Friday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Chaney entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Warden, of this place, Frank Chaney and family, of St. Martins, and Miss Laura Burton, of Sharpsville, Sunday.

Mrs. Albert Burton returned Saturday from a week's visit with friends and relatives at Springfield.

Miss Maybelle Sharp spent Sunday with her parents, Frank Sharp and wife, of Four Corners.

Miss Mary Burton, after a four weeks' vacation, returned to Greenfield, where she is taking a course in Greenfield Business College.

Mrs. E. B. Reeves and grandson, Nell, spent Sunday with the former's brother, Alton McDaniel, of near New Vienna.

PULSE.

Sept. 14, '08.

Emma Judy returned to her home in Sylvanville, Ky., Tuesday.

Alma Chaney is visiting relatives in Indiana.

Rev. H. Gsett and wife entertained a number of relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mowery, of Mt. Orab, are visiting Clint Roush and family.

William Sanderson and wife were guests of Howard Cocenan and family Sunday.

Lillie Certier, of Middletown, spent a few days recently with her parents, P. F. Certier and wife.

RUSSELL.

September 14, 1908.

Rev. W. S. Gray preached his first sermon for the conference year at this place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 to a very attentive audience. His next regular appointment here will be two weeks from yesterday at the same hour. Everybody is cordially invited.

Mrs. Ira Ireland and little daughter, of Chicago, who have been visiting her brother, John Luck, and wife and other relatives for some weeks, have returned home.

George Boatright, of Stuart, Iowa, was called here last week to see his mother, Mrs. T. A. Boatright, who is quite poorly.

Miss Marie Jonte has pu in one week teaching her first school at the Newby school house, near New Vienna.

Mrs. Drusilla Murphy, of Lynchburg, is visiting at Oscar Bennett's and calling on friends at Russell.

The next meeting of the G. A. R. at this place will occur on Saturday, the 26th of September. Business of great importance is expected to be transacted then. Comrades, as God has given you the health, you should assemble yourselves together at least every regular meeting while opportunity is given.

Wm. Stoltz and wife, of New Vienna, came Saturday to see her sister, Mrs. T. A. Boatright, who is quite poorly at this writing.

The recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Burton were Mrs. Mary Birk and son, Sheridan, of Chicago, Mrs. Myrtle Wright and family and Frank McCoy and daughter, Nellie, of Columbus, Mrs. Norman and her sister and Miss Edna Norman, of Blanchester. They have all returned to their homes.

James Brewer and family have moved from this place to Allensburg. His son Leslie, who underwent a surgical operation a few weeks ago, is able to be up and around.

Mrs. Mariab Cadwallader, of Jollett, Ill., is visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Retta Chaplin and little niece, of Hoaglands, visited at the home of Mrs. E. E. Edwards one day last week.

Maud Gillilan and family were visiting her brother, Shepherd McDaniel, and wife, yesterday.

Sylvia Horner is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Cinnie Roush, and family, at Greenfield.

Henry Langlois and wife recently made a visit to her brother, Herman Harman, in Adams county.

Georgia Granger entertained several of her young lady friends at dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Arminda Belles, of Washington C. H., and Silas Hill and granddaughter, Miss Lou Clark, of Hillsboro, were visiting their sister, Mrs. Elizabeth E. Edwards, and family recently.

FORT HILL.

Sept. 14, '08.

Miss Blanche Havens called on Miss Bess Butler Sunday.

H. V. Matthews and wife, of Greenfield, are the guests of her parents, Dan Butler and wife.

G. W. Murren and daughter spent Sunday with the former's son and family at Cliff Range.

J. P. Havens and son were visitors in Hillsboro Saturday.

Fred Rhoades and family spent Sunday with S. S. Deardoff and family.

Mrs. Minus Turner and son, Homer, of Sqaushtown, visited at the homes of S. S. Deardoff, Fred Rhoades and J. B. Turner a few days last week.

The ice cream social was quite a success at Olive Branch Saturday week.

Mrs. Amanda Butler and Miss Nell and Bert Shaper called on Mrs. Sarah Butler, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. John Reed and little daughter, of Marshall, are guests of his parents, John L. Reed and wife.

Miss Dora Hockman returned to Cincinnati after spending a couple of weeks with her parents, T. A. Hockman and wife.

Mrs. Blanch Mattison, who has been staying with Wm. Burnett's at New Vienna, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Amanda Copeland, of Rainsboro, spent Friday with her uncle, Dan Butler and family.

Meet me at Hillsboro the 17th and 18th and you will see the best races there of any fair this year.

FIRE INSURANCE!

Be sure you are insured in a company that adjust its losses promptly and liberally. I represent such companies:

The Penn Fire.

The New York Underwriters ("The Hartford.")

The German Alliance.

The Hanover: The Fidelity and Casualty.

Robt. D. McClure, Agent,
REAL ESTATE AND LOANS.

SINKING SPRING.

Sept. 14, '08.

Mrs. Mary Baker, of Blanchester, is the guest of relatives here.

Thomas Purcell, of Loudon, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Louisa Butler.

Miss Emma McKeehan is visiting friends in Greenfield.

Mrs. David Setty and son, Walter, of Loudon, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Frank Tener, of Hillsboro, was a visitor here Thursday.

Don't forget the fair at Hillsboro Sept. 17 and 18.

Mrs. William Butler returned home Thursday after a weeks visit with relatives in Columbus.

Miss Margaret Patton spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Elmville.

Mrs. Martha Gall is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. James Frost, near Latham.

Searborough—Insurance.

Here is Relief for Women.

Mother Gray, a nurse in New York, discovered an aromatic, pleasant herb cure for women's ill, called AUSTRALIAN-LEAF. It is the only certain regulator. Cures female weaknesses and Backache, Kidney, Bladder and Urinary troubles. At all Druggists or by mail 50 cts. Sample FREE. Address, The Mother Gray Co., Le Roy, N. Y.

Overcoat bargains. Wade Turner.

DALLAS.

Sept. 14, '08.

S. W. Meredith and wife took dinner with Arthur Lucas and family Sunday.

A delightful time is reported by all who attended the party given by C. H. Stephens and wife in honor of their son, Stanley, who leaves Monday for Wilmington to attend college.

Born-to Foster Grove and wife September 6, a son.

David Hammond and wife, of Elmville, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Sam'l. Wolf and wife.

The M. E. Sunday School of this place will give a picnic Saturday Sept. 26 in C. A. Finnegan's woods north of Dallas. All Sabbath Schools are invited to attend.

Several from this place attended the birthday dinner of C. A. Smith Monday.

PRICETOWN.

Sept. 14, '08.

Mrs. Bessie Pence and son, of Lynchburg, spent the past week with her parents, John McConnaha and wife.

Rev. Frank Foust filled his appointments at Danville Sunday and Sunday night.

R. Stroup and daughter, of Blackwell, Okla., are visiting John Workman and wife.

Miss Pearl Fawley is entertaining her friend, Miss Hufenberger, of Hillsboro.

J. C. Landess and wife visited relatives at Blanchester Saturday and Sunday.

C. C. Sanders and wife visited their daughter, Mrs. Orland Cochran and family, Sunday.

Rev. George Smith, of Kansas, was calling on old friends here Thursday.

Quite a number from this place attended the convention at Danville Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Mallinda Young, of Hillsboro, is visiting her son, Lufe and family.

Rev. Frank Calley conducted the funeral of Mrs. Hattie Calley at the Christian church Monday morning.

Mrs. John Young and daughters, Sylvia and Thursie, visited the former's sister, Mrs. Lucinda Walker and family, at Danville Thursday.

Overcoat bargains. Wade Turner.

RAINSBORO.

Sept. 14, '08.

Master Joseph Head, of Hillsboro, is the guest of relatives here this week.

Mrs. Margaret Gall returned to her home at Belfast last week after a few days visit with Mrs. J. H. David.

Rev. J. F. McCool and family left last Saturday for their new home at Bethel after a two years' pastorate here.

Wm. Barrett, of Hillsboro, spent

Sunday here the guest of his uncle, J. B. Davis.

The many friends of Mrs. W. J. Redkey are rejoiced to see that she is able to go out driving after an illness of several months.

Geo. Free and wife spent Sunday with Jos. Rittenhouse and family on Rocky Fork.

T. M. Ferguson was a business visitor at Cincinnati last Friday.

Rev. A. E. Huntington, the new pastor of the M. E. church arrived here the latter part of the week and filled his appointments at Marshall and Boston Sunday.

Misses May and Beatrice Davis returned to their work in Cincinnati last week after spending their vacation with relatives here.

The drought still continues and the water question is becoming a serious one in this neighborhood.

Rev. R. B. Coleman and wife, of Bowerville, were guests of friends here last week.

Our fair board are getting things in readiness for the second annual fair to be held Oct. 7, 8, 9 and 10 and will be able to offer much better accommodations than last year. The amphitheater capable of holding 1200 persons is now completed and there has also been extensive improvements in the buildings to accommodate horses and cattle.

N. B. Upp received an appointment last week from Gov. Harris as a delegate from Ohio to the Farmer's National Congress which meets at Madison, Wis., on Sept. 24. Owing to the rush of work on his Plum Run Stock farm Mr. Upp will be unable to accept the appointment but appreciates the honor conferred upon him.

Overcoat bargains. Wade Turner.

NEW PETERSBURG.

Sept. 14, '08.

Chas. Cummings and wife are visiting relatives in Indiana.

E. O. Fairley returned Friday from a business trip to West Virginia.

Miss Anna Buntain spent the Labor Day vacation with her mother here.

Miss Vesta George will attend school at Berea, Ky., the coming winter.

The Ladies Aid will have a box supper at the home of Mrs. Ethel Blatt Saturday night September 19. All cordially invited.

The Odd Fellows have improved their hall with a new coat of paint.

Link Taylor has moved into his property here.

Several from this place took advantage of the last excursion to Detroit the 5th and report a good time.

Harry Gordon, of Springfield, and Miss Connine, of Greenfield, spent Sunday with G. W. Setty and wife.

Our schools opened on the 7th with Clarence Pearce as Superintendent and Clarence West and Mary Elliott as Intermediate and Primary teachers.

FAIRVIEW.

Sept. 14, '08.

Something great! That is what the Hillsboro Fair will be. Do not miss it.

Misses Meta and Mary Schweinsberger, of Hillsboro, and Lizzie Uhrig, of Columbus, visited Mrs. W. C. Boelzner one evening last week.

Mrs. Henry Saums and children visited her mother and sister, near Webertown, Thursday and Friday.

Sunday School at 9 a. m. followed by the usual devotional services next Sunday.

M. W. Overman and wife, of Hillsboro, and John Tedrick returned Friday from Springfield after a week's stay.

Miss Stella McCall, of Samantha, is visiting relatives here this week.

Charles Lear removed his family from Norwood to this place Monday and has taken possession of the store where he will be ready to meet all customers old and new.

J. C. Roush was in Cincinnati yesterday.

Constipation and indigestion are twins. They kill people inch by inch, sap life away every day. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea removes the cause; drives the disease away. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.

THE W. R. SMITH DRUG CO.

WINKLE.

Sept. 14, '08.

Amos Hawk and wife, L. A. Sorber and wife and H. N. Pulliam and wife took dinner with M. R. Pulliam Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Mahaffey, of Midland City, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. W. Pulliam, last week.

The M. W. A. held an ice cream festival at the school house here last Saturday night.

Misses Sadie and Margine Calley, who have been visiting friends in the west, arrived home last Tuesday evening.

Ira Fouch and wife, who have been visiting relatives here for the past three weeks, have returned to their home in New Mexico. Earl Fouch accompanied him.

Lovers of fine horses should not fail to be at the Hillsboro fair the 17th and 18th.

Henry Bohls and family, of Mowrytown, were the guests of A. S. Calley, Sunday.

Mrs. Michaels and daughter, of Muncie, and Mrs. George Roush and daughter were guests of Mrs. Maggie Calley, last Friday.

M. P. Hunter, of Mowrytown, was a business caller here Saturday.

B. C. Sonner and wife and son were the guests of the former's parents at Sonner's Chapel Sunday.

Jess Arledge, of Norwood, was the guest of his mother last week.

Our school opened last Tuesday with Miss Rissa Walker at the helm.

Two passengers on a Philadelphia street car were arrested on the complaint of the conductor the other day. And then the judge ruled that the money was good.

Gov. Harris Again in Harness. Columbus, O.—Gov. Harris returned from a vacation at his farm at Eaton, and took up the duties of his office at the statehouse. The governor admits that he was partly prostrated by the hot weather, and says he realizes that he must take care of himself during the hot spell. He says that he believes he will be able to take part in the fall campaign.

Five Governors Will Attend. Columbus, O.—Adj. Gen. Critchfield has been notified that five governors will attend the dedication, September 1, of the monument on the site of Ft. Meigs, near Toledo. The executives will include Gov. Swanson, of Virginia; Gov. Willson, of Kentucky; Gov. Hanly, of Indiana; Gov. Warner, of Michigan, and Gov. Harris, of Ohio.

Drys Win at Wooster. Wooster, O.—Probate Judge Thomas W. Orr rendered a decision in the local option case in favor of the drys after they presented a motion to dismiss on account of insufficient testimony. The wets claimed there was an illegal expenditure of money, an illegal board of elections and an illegal student vote.

Last of the Gang. Lancaster, O.—James Teague, last member of a gang that has been terrorizing the officials of this part of the state, was arrested here. He is wanted by New Lexington authorities, having been indicted for complicity in a robbery for which four of the gang are serving reformatory sentences. He has confessed.

Cut By Scythe. Hamden Junction, O.—The little four-year-old daughter of Geo. Thompson was horribly cut by a moving machine scythe, 25 stitches being required to close the wounds. Her recovery is doubtful.

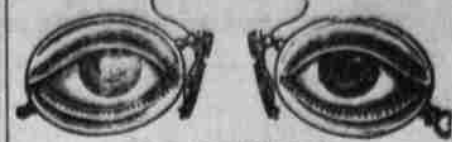

Accused By Daughter. Athens, O.—Alfred Wade, of Luhrig, a miner, was arrested charged with having mistreated his sixteen-year-old daughter for the last two years. A party was organized to lynch him, but was dispersed.

New Hope Baptist Church.

Sunday school 9:30. Preaching services 11 and 7:30. Beginning next Sunday evening the pastor will inaugurate a series of evangelistic sermons. The first of this series will be on "Christianity's Credentials." B. Y. P. U. praise service 6:30. You are invited to worship with us.

Men always love to see a girl With a dandy clear complexion Rocky Mountain Tea's the stuff That gives it to perfection.

THE W. R. SMITH DRUG CO.

If something is wrong with your

EYES

You ought to find out about it right away. Taken in time the ordinary errors of vision are easy to correct, neglected they steadily grow worse.

EXAMINATION FREE.

Dr. C. F. Faris, The Eyesight Specialist.

OFFICE—First door east of Economy Store. Main street, Hillsboro O

FOR SALE! Shropshire Sheep.

40 Ewes

30 Rams and Ram Lambs.

TOM NELSON. STOCK CATTLE AND Breed Ewes.

Any one wanting Stock Cattle or Breeding Ewes will do well to see us, as we can supply your wants to your satisfaction. Give us a call.

DOTY & CO., LEESBURG, O.

JULIUS C. KOCH,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN

ICE

And Manufacturer of

MINERAL WATER

ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED. Office—Rear of Traction Depot.

SIMON HIDER, THE FLORIST.

For Your Flowers.

HOLLOWTOWN.

Sept. 14, '08.

S. A. Marconet and family, accompanied by J. W. Marconet, of Mowrytown, spent Sunday with William Marconet and family.